RESPONSE

Dear Sir:

Applicant submits this response to the Office Action mailed March 2, 2006.

At present, all of claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §103(a) as being unpatentable over Jones in view of Hendricks. For one or more of the following reasons, Applicant submits that Jones and Hendricks are not entitled to the breadth of interpretation necessary to find the claimed invention obvious. Further, the combination of these references does not appear to be justified.

The Jones patent discloses a financial advisory system having the purpose of optimizing investment portfolios. To accomplish this purpose,
